Samuel Kirkland Made Superintendent of Shetucket Mill-Comes from the

This (Monday) morning Samuel Kirkland of 13 Elm street will leave the Falls mill, where for the past 21-2 years he has been overseet of the weaving, and will enter the Shetucket company as superintendent. The advancement, which came as a pleasant surprise to Mr. Kirkland, was made because of his invaluable service to the company. During his connection company. During his connection with the Falls company Mr. Kirkland has proved a faithful, industrious and trustworthy employe, and was very popular with his help, whom he al-ways treated with consideration and fairness. His departure from the serlice of the Falls company will be a distinct loss to the company.

Mr. Kirkland was formerly second-Mr. Kirkland was formerly second-band of the weaving department of the Massachusetts cotton mill, of Lowell, Mass., which is one of the largest cot-ton mills in New England, and he was later overseer of the weaving depart-ment of the Boott mill, which is also among the largest. One of the excited little ones created a laugh when he called out, "Oh, see the funny horse." The deer kept on down Hickory street, and, reaching Central avenue, started on a gentle trot up the avenue and turned into the yard of Dr. L. Team Captains Made Report at Reception Friday-Team No. 5 Made the High Total of $557-Team No. 9 Second With $406-More Contributions Still to be Received-President Williams Tells of Increasing Needs of Backus Hospital For Women.

At the reception given at the Y. M. C. A. hall on Saturday afternoon the team captains made reports that showed their efforts in the week had secured at least $100 more than the $3,000 which they set out to raise, and that they had expectations of securing still further contributions for the auto ambulance for the Backus hospital.

The reception was given at the Y. M. help of our executive and ladies advisory boards and the immediate hospital.

We have gone to Hartford and secured an appropriation from the state of $5,000 at your executive and ladies advisory boards and the immediate hospital. dies' advisory board of the hospital, comprising Mrs. H. H. Osgoood, chairman, Mrs. James L. Case, Mrs. Charles L. Hubbard and Mrs. Jhn C. Averill, and there was a large attendance of the members of the ten teams. President Winslow T. Williams, Hnry A. Tirrell and Frank L. Woodard of the executive board of the hospital were present.

Reports from the Teams. Much enthusiasm was in evidence as were made. The honors for high figure of total contributions secured went to Team No. 5, of which Miss Mary Richards is captain. She reported a total of $557.21. Next in rank was Team No. 9, captained by Mrs. C. D. Team No. 9, captained by Mrs. C. D."

President Williams Suoke. President Winslow T. Williams was called upon to address the ladies and responded as follows: responded as follows:
I congratulate you most heartily and the hospital on the acquisition of the funds for the new ambulance. The old horse-drawn vehicle was a blessing in its time, has done valuant service, but is scarcely up to date in any way.

The new motor car will be no blessing Not Rolling In Wealth. The prevailing idea in this community for many years has been that the Backus hospital was rolling in wealth, that no moneys were needed, and that gifts were not sought, and that those in the management were on so high a pedestal that they did not have to worry about the filthy lucre, but at the same time, severe but unjust criticism was made of the high charges for all services rendered by the hospital was made of the high charges and services rendered by the hospital.

When I became a member of the board, and for some time thereafter I felt very much the same way, but the deeper I got into the hospital work, the more I realized that we were falling sadly behind in modern equipment and service to the public.

The suggestion is made that the returns from invested funds, never entirely adequate, are of necessity constantly shrinking. On the contrary our expenses are increasing at an enormous rate. You will scarcely believe me when I state that our exbe filled by John Banford of Grosvenor place, who for nearly two years has been second-hand in the weave shop.

This was followed by reminiscences of the life and times of Lincoln by Rev. J. C. Barrows. I had the pleasure once of seeing Abraham Lincoln at a review of $0,000 union seldiers, he said. I was not near him but caught a glimpse of that great man, one of the most remarkable men in all history. Lincoln was born into ignorance and poverty, into privation not privilege, born into hard service. One of the best things that came into his life as a boy and young man was the influence of his stepmother. She was an excellent woman and cared for and tried to do for the lad.

After Lincoln became president, few knew his sorrows, the burdens he bore, few have borne, many times he stood alone bearing the abuse of enemies. Finally he came to the point when Described in Matt. IV, I-II, Rev. J. H. Broderick Tells Congregation-Weak Catholics Yield Where Our Lord Re-
